N.J. SERIES Comparison Chart

N.J. Series

This series of guitars are machine crafted in Japan under our direction and they complete the full range of B.C. Rich guitars. The N.J. Series are available in both Bolt-on and Through neck versions, with a choice of electronics and most feature the Kahler Flyer Tremelo system. These fine, affordable guitars are available in six standard colors plus the Rivet Graphic design, (Ironbird only). N.J. Series allows the musician on a budget to start with a B.C. Rich.

BERNIE RICO

"B.C. RICH, the name stands for commitment to excellence in craftsmanship. From the first time I put my name on a guitar the only thing important to me has been perfection. From my famous handmade guitars to my production models my highly qualified woodworkers, electronic technicians and skilled sales people will do their best to put out the highest quality product to you. Because like you, I demand perfection."
