The new Squier Stagemaster series of guitars represents a radical departure from traditional guitar designs. Specially engineered to satisfy the demands of a new generation of hard rock players, quality and performance are fused with tone and vibe. The Stagemaster's sleek body is crafted from solid American alder and yields a warm, complex tone. The Stagemaster's rosewood fretboard is radiused to match the Floyd Rose bridge for slick action and choke-free bends. And, the heel of its maple neck is shaped to your hand, allowing easy access to all 24 medium-jumbo frets. The playability of the Stagemaster is unmatched, even by guitars costing twice as much.

All Stagemaster pickups are paraffin-soaked, just like expensive aftermarket pickups, to reduce unwanted squealing and microphonic feedback. Because Squier is about finding your own voice, we offer three high-output Stagemaster pickup configurations. The Stagemaster HSS is equipped with a biting single-coil pickup in the neck and middle positions and a raging humbucker by the bridge. The HH is 100% saturated fat, sporting two humbuckers, and finally, the HSH offers the maximum flexibility of two humbuckers flanking one single-coil pickup in the middle position.

The new Squier Standard Stratocasters play great with a traditional vibe and modern feel. Newly upgraded throughout, these classics stand alone. Player-friendly features like the 22-fret fast-action neck, late '60s big headstock and a flatter 9.5-inch fretboard radius make for easier playing and choke-free bends. The die-cast tuners are lifetime-lubricated for years of trouble-free service and tuning stability. A new twin-pivot bridge with satin-anodized saddles provides smooth tremolo action. From their look and feel to the quality of their components, these are the Stratocasters value-conscious musicians have been waiting for.

On the new Standard Stratocaster, you can choose from a maple or rosewood fingerboard, and there are six beautiful finish options like the classic 3-Color Sunburst (shown in maple) and Shoreline Gold (shown in rosewood). The Standard Stratocaster is also available in a left-handed version.

Every humbucker-equipped Standard Strat gets our custom Blackout Treatment — black pickguard, black knobs, black trem-tip and black pickup covers. Available in six new finish options like Sherwood Green Metallic (shown).

Single-coil pickups are bright and versatile, but some players just need the crunch and power of two humbuckers straight-up. If you're that kind of player, our Double Fat Strat and Double Fat Strat 7 guitars were designed for you.

Both the Double Fat Strat and Double Fat Strat 7 have neck profiles and headstocks duplicated from a late '60s model Strat. Both guitars also feature a flatter-than-vintage 9.5-inch radius and 22 frets for enhanced playability.
